Dinnages, Unit 11, Hove, BN3 5RA
Not retail premises, only deliveries. Visitors by prior arrangement

For the Autumn/Winter edition of Bus Times, our view marks the 60th anniversary of the Leyland Titan PD3, with many survivors still in the traditional Southdown livery, first called a 'Queen Mary' in 1960. New from May 1958, these were 30 foot long, the new permitted length, front entrance and full front, while other operators had started to move to rear engine vehicles to enable one man operation. Our May 1962 view shows XUF861 from the third batch at Pool Valley Bus Station in its former days complete with its overhanging canopy. Screened up for 112 taking passengers to the Withead Sports Stadium, while 2894CD is alongside ready for the 23 service to Crawley. Barrie Hutson, a known transport photographer captured many views like this in and around Brighton.

Covering Trams, Trolleybuses, Buses, Railway, Volks Railway & local scenes too
Prior agreement to be obtained before Library images to be used in any publication.
