Most people find our day to go ticket the best option, as you get unlimited travel within the area selected, saving you money if you make more journeys during the day, or want to pop out in the evening.

There is still the option of paying for a one-way ride, where you know you will not be coming back the same day.

[†]Customers aged 16-18 will need a new photo iff card or My Travel Pass to qualify for young persons fares

If you travel most days one of these tickets will save you money. With all these tickets you get unlimited travel within the area selected, so you can travel in the evenings and at weekends at no extra charge.

Buy a weekly ticket for any 7 consecutive days, or a 4 week ticket for 28 days consecutive travel.

You can also top up your iffcard at a Paypoint outlet in multiples of £5, up to a maximum of £50. There's a list of outlets shown on the next page.
