Fancy a fabulous day out down on the North Yorkshire coast?

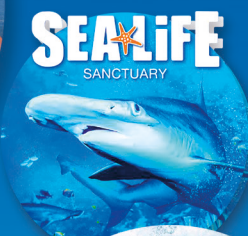

Our quick X11 bus will give you about 7 hours in Whitby or 6 in Scarborough all at a bargain price.

Or you could spend a bit of time in each.

Wander through narrow lanes with shops selling tempting things from glassware crafts, jewellery, gifts and clothes to tasty treats and local delicacies.

Then climb the 199 steps up onto the headland to discover the starkly romantic ruins of the Abbey perched high on the cliff above the town.

Take a boat trip round the bay from the working harbour or just soak up the atmosphere of this characterful fishing town.

Enjoy this grand Yorkshire seaside resort with an imposing castle ruin on the headland, award-winning beaches, lovely old harbour and great family attractions.

The broad South Bay Beach has beautiful soft sand, excellent bathing and donkey rides for the kids. Or choose the North Bay Beach with its coveted Blue Flag status.

Kids will love the rides and slides at Alpamare, and the Sea Life Sanctuary is well worth a visit.

Check out Alonzi's famous, fabulous, fifties-style genuine Italian ice cream parlour on the sea front - mmmmm!

We'll even throw in a free ride on the Beachcomber open-top bus that runs all along sea front and can take you to Alpamare and Sea Life.
