

Route 40 runs between Poole, Wareham, Corfe Castle and Swanage up to every hour, 7 days a week.

WAREHAM

A busy market town with a pretty quayside, restaurants, cafés, a museum and a medieval church, all nestling within the Saxon walls. Farmers' markets take place once a month and summer Thursdays and Saturdays play host to a street market. Oh... and Lawrence of Arabia's effigy is housed in St Martin's Church.

CORFE CASTLE

As your trip continues through the countryside, you'll soon be rewarded with a sight to behold – the breathtaking outline of Corfe Castle, steeped high on the ramparts in the village of Corfe Castle.

The historical role the castle played can be dated back to William the Conqueror's day and by the time of the Civil War was defended by the Bankes family when it fell to treachery from within and was subsequently destroyed by the Parliamentarians.

The castle is now owned by the National Trust and admission charges apply.

SWANAGE

Arriving in Swanage, you will be welcomed by an unspoilt seaside town bursting with character and old fashioned charm, as well as a town centre with interesting, unique curiosity shops and a vintage steam railway too.

Stroll along the old fashioned pier, watch Punch and Judy on the beach or simply relax in a deck chair taking in the views whilst enjoying an ice cream. A dip in the sea is essential, while a boat trip around the bay is a delight.

Swanage Steam Railway runs trips daily from April to October to Corfe Castle and Norden, taking you back in time to the era of steam.
