

What's New on Grey Line 50?

New service 50 provides a Monday to Saturday daytime service, every 30 minutes, between City and Victoria Retail Park, via Lady Bay Retail Park, Daleside Road, East Point Retail Park, Racecourse and Colwick Industrial Estate.

Service 50 replaces the current City Council funded Ecolink service, which will no longer operate. All NCT fares, tickets and passes will be available, including all day tickets, Easyrider and Grouprider.

Fares

NCT 50 will be operated by 'exact fare' buses and drivers will not be able to issue any change.

As an NCT service, the 50 will accept the full range of NCT tickets and passes, including Easyrider.

Main fares:

The following fares apply when paying cash or using the Robin Hood Pay As You Go Card or NCTX Buses app

	Adult	Under 19
Single	£2.30	£1.20
All Day	£4.20	£2.50

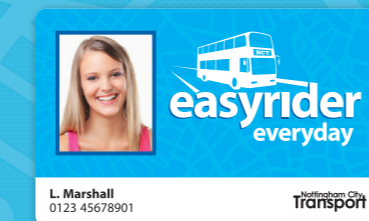

The current £4 Link Bus Group ticket will not be issued on NCT's 50. A Grouprider, which covers up to 5 people (min 1 adult, max 2 adults) is available and covers all NCT buses in Nottingham. This is priced at £6 on weekdays after 09:30 and all day weekends and £10 on weekdays before 09:30.

Robin Hood

Robin Hood Season and Pay as You Go Cards will be accepted, but if you are only using the 50 and other NCT buses, switching to Easyrider will be cheaper for you.

Grey Line 50

Nottingham City Transport will be introducing a new service 50, from Monday 2nd September 2019 between City, City Link, Lady Bay Retail Park, Daleside Road, Racecourse Park & Ride, Colwick Industrial Estate and Victoria Retail Park.

New service 50 will:

- Follow the same route as the Nottingham City Council funded Ecolink service, which will no longer run
- Stop at all existing Ecolink stops – except Mount Street in the City Centre which will be replaced by a more convenient stop for the Old Market Square on Angel Row
- Accept all NCT tickets and passes, including Easyrider

Park & Ride

Racecourse Park & Ride > City

Customers using Racecourse Park & Ride will benefit from a more frequent 'turn up and go' frequency as Nottingham City Transport's Red 44 becomes the main Park & Ride bus into Nottingham City Centre – visit www.nctx.co.uk/racecourse for details
